On Safari

Audio CD Section 4: Expanded Story

(Page 12) Today is Saturday. It's a sunny day. Colin is with his Mom and Dad. They are at the safari park. Mom is driving the car. Dad is taking pictures of the animals. Colin is looking at the animals. They are happy. Let's see what's in the safari park.
(Page 14) They drive on the road and look for animals. Mom stops the car. What do they see? Zebras! Zebras look like horses with black and white stripes. They watch the black and white zebras. Zebras like to eat grass. Do you like to eat grass? What's next? Mom drives the car.
(Page 18) Mom sees a family of monkeys. She stops the car. Colin likes monkeys. They watch the monkeys. Monkeys play games and eat bananas. Colin likes to play games and eat bananas, too, but he is not a monkey. Look! There's a monkey on the car. What a naughty monkey!
(Page 20) Good-bye monkeys. It's time to see the big strong elephants. They watch the elephants. Elephants drink a lot of water. Colin likes the elephants. He likes their big ears. He likes their long noses. How many elephants can you see?
(Page 22) Colin wants to see the lions. Look at Colin now. He looks like an angry lion. Grrrrr! The lions are hungry. They are eating lunch. Dad is eating, too. Dad is lucky to be eating in the car. He doesn't want to eat with those hungry lions.
(Page 24) It's 5 o'clock in the afternoon. It's time to go home. Colin is happy. He saw many animals in the safari park. He saw Zebras, kangaroos, monkeys, elephants, and lions. The lions are his favorite animals. Which is your favorite animal?

Lost Kitten

Audio CD Section 4: Expanded Story

(Page 30) In the woods not far from here, lives a kitten. The kitten's name is Toby. He is a very young cat. One evening, Toby the kitten wakes up. He is in a tree in the woods. The sun is going down and it's getting dark. Toby yawns and looks around. "Oh, no. Where am I?" says Toby.
(Page 32) Toby looks around again. Now, it is night-time. He cannot see his mother. He cannot see his house. What can he see? Toby sees a bird. The bird is in a tree. She is with her babies. "I am lost. Can you help me?" he asks the mother bird.
(Page 34) The mother bird and her babies look at Toby. "I am sorry. I can't help you. I live here in this nest," says the mother bird. The bird is not his mother and the nest is not his home. So Toby goes to look for his mother.
(Page 36) Toby walks through the woods. He comes to some flowers. He looks carefully at the flowers. What does he see? Toby sees a spider. It's a mother spider and her baby spiders. Toby isn't afraid of spiders. "Can you help me? I am lost," he says to the spider.
(Page 38) The spider looks at the kitten. She shakes her head. "I live here in this web. I am sorry. I can't help you," she says. The spider is not his mother and the web is not his home, so Toby goes on to look for his mother.
(Page 40) Toby walks and walks and walks. The moon and stars are out. Whoosh! What's that? That's a bat. "I am lost. Can you help me?" Toby calls out. The bat flies around the kitten once, twice, three times. Then the bat laughs and says, "this is your house." It has two windows and a door. It looks like Toby's house. It is Toby's house, but where is Toby's mother?
(Page 42) Aaahh! There she is. "Hi Mommy! This is my house. I am home." This is his house. This is his mother. The kitten is not lost anymore. He is happy and safe at home.
